

MOMENTS

"Moments" is the first whimsical installation art series at Admiralty Park - the biggest fun park in northern Singapore.

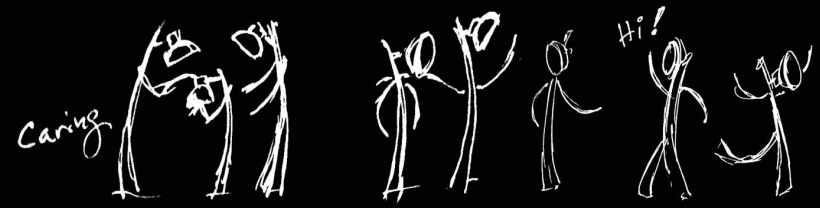

The park consists of three main play areas - Junior Play, Adventure Play and the Family Terracing Play - featuring a diverse play sets that encourage group and multi-generation interactions. The play areas provide fun and memorable experience that we spend with our family and friends.

The aim of the installations is to celebrate family, love and friendship while offering a seamless integration with the play areas to enliven the spatial experience. Fun and memorable moments were being captured and transformed into whimsical and humanised art forms and integrated with lighting to entice users visually and emotionally.

An installation was erected at each themed play zone to draw connection between the park users and play areas. They were also strategically placed next to park benches so as to provide illumination and comfort at the same time - combining form and function.

Together, they capture and celebrate the precious moments that we spend with our family, friends and new acquaintances in the park.
